

The top 5 features

1. Homepage

Homepage is one of the top 5 features. The reason is because every promotion products are displayed for user viewing and to see the short information of each products, especially the percentage of discount.

2. Detail Page

Detail page is also one of the top 5 features. Detail page is the full information of each promotion products. For example, if users interested in any products, they can click on that products and they can see the full of information of that products like brand, size, original price, total amount of one that product and so on...
